LOVE WILD WEDDINGS

Welcome to... WOODBURN HOMESTEAD

Situated on 42 acres and cradled by the Angas River, Woodburn Homestead is a breathtaking property in the beautiful Fleurieu Peninsula.

The long gum-lined driveway reveals a charming homestead dating back to 1864, built by the Rankines, a pioneering family in the local region. The Westphalen family — Cindy and John, their daughter Lucy & husband Peter, and their son Michael & wife Bianca — purchased Woodburn Homestead in 2016.

The family has spent the past seven years breathing new life into this historic property, now known as an award-winning destination wedding venue.

Surrounded by intimate garden corners and boasting an iconic open-air chapel, corrugated iron 'stables' lounge and bar, lush lawned spaces, and accommodation for up to 18 people, this venue truly 'has it all' for your wedding day.

Your ceremony...

OPEN-AIR CHAPEL

Once an old chaff shed, the chapel features authentic stonework and a limestone crush floor, providing a warm and unique space for your vows.

HOMESTEAD LAWNS

Choose between marrying in front of our elegant homestead, or against the natural backdrop of our 160-year-old Morton Bay Fig Tree.

MELROSE'S GARDEN

An intimate garden setting alongside the homestead. Framed by stone walls, the striking arbour of black wrought-iron gates is a stand-out feature.

Your reception...

ANGAS LAWNS

For either sit-down or cocktail receptions, this lush grassed area overlooks the Angas River and paddocks. Our marquee is available to hire for an additional cost.

Adjoining the open-air chapel, this lawn space is located at the front of the property. It's perfect for those all-important post-ceremony canapes, a large cocktail reception, or outdoor dining under the stars.

STABLE LOUNGE AND BAR

Once the old stables, this intimate function space contains the bar and lounge. It's a great relaxing space for casual mingling, a photo booth and more!
